

Youth Ministry High School Intern Position - Full time, First Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem, NC

This is a great opportunity to explore and gain experience in a dynamic youth ministry at a large (1600+) downtown church. We are offering two full time internships (one working with middle school, the other working with high school) for a year-long position.

Intern will have responsibilities in the following areas:

- weekly programs (outreach/ fellowship and Sunday School)
- leading Small Groups
- relational/incarnational ministry
- special events
- missions

We desire candidates who love Jesus and students, enjoy the unique nature of ministering to this age group, are organized and self-motivated.

Our internship also includes:

- a mentor that you meet with regularly throughout the year
- meeting regularly with a pastor for discussion and study with other interns employed by our church.

We prefer someone who is exploring a call into ministry and has some experience in youth ministry. This position is full time and paid. Housing is provided through a host family. This position is designed for recent college graduates, but is open to anyone. Preferable start date is June 1, 2012.

If interested , email your resume to our youth administrator- Sharon Sturkie at sharonst@1stpres.com for more information regarding the position (or if you have questions).
