

Beauty Will Save the World

The Beauty of a Justice-Centered Life

Aaron Williams

Micah 6:6-8

August 4, 2024

Introduction: Beauty is an intrinsic attribute of the Triune Godhead. The Lord is all-together beautiful, and He gives image-bearers the capacity to perceive beauty as well as reflect the artistry. The key to beauty, that is particularly perceivable and therefore revealed to Christians, is Jesus Himself. All beauty in the created world is from Him. Jesus is the source of all that is beautiful. If the church is called to be a little bit of heaven on earth. Then we are called to bring the beauty of heaven down to earth.

Prayer: Father, we are grateful that justice and mercy are important to you. Amen

Review: Did the beauty of Jesus become more real to you this past week?

Read: Micah 6:6-8

Discussion:

1. What is the significance/meaning of verses 6-7? Do they have any importance for us today?
2. How has the Lord shown what is good? See vs 4-5.
3. How is the beauty of heaven and Jesus reflected in our acting justly and loving mercy? How do we love mercy?
4. What does it mean to you to "walk" humbly with our God? Explain.

Application: As you move (walk) this week, be humble in spirit.

Prayer: Father, thank you for this reminder of the importance to you of justice and mercy in your world. Amen
